

estate clearing

FINDING closure

Give yourself peace of mind while you mourn, remember, transition, and move forward. Lean on the Uncluttered team as you navigate the emotional process of clearing out and closing a home. The emotion and stress of cleaning and clearing an estate is a burden you don't have to bear alone. Our team has the expertise and experience to help guide you through what can be a very complicated emotional process.

help when you need it most

Whether it's a home you lived in for many years or the home of a loved one who passed away, cleaning and clearing an estate can be emotional. It's also a burden you don't have to bear alone.

Our team can:

- Guide you through the process of clearing the physical items from the home
- Find missing/hidden objects, documents, cash, and other items
- Respond to and handle any issues that arise
- Bring order, calm, and closure to the home

Even when clients have completed a thorough sweep of the house, we often find missing paperwork and additional valuables that were previously overlooked.

we're with you every step of the way

With over 24 years of experience, the team at Uncluttered can anticipate problems before they happen and troubleshoot everything else using our vast resource list.

We can also help with:

- Trash removal
- Hazardous waste disposal
- Moving large unwanted items
- Transferring documents to estate attorneys or family members

call Uncluttered for your free phone consultation and give yourself peace of mind that nothing will be overlooked and every detail will be handled with respect and care.

uncluttered
PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZING & PHOTO ORGANIZING

425.478.4664

info@unclutterednw.com
unclutterednw.com

Linda, and her Uncluttered team, were an absolute BLESSING with clearing out my father-in-law's home!

It was an enormous task filled with over 40 years of stuff. What would have taken months to do, Linda, with her uncanny ability to plow through an overwhelming task, was able to accomplish in a few days. She was able to donate many, many items to various charities saving money on the dump fee, as well as the environment!

Her team did this with integrity and detail finding large sums of cash and important paperwork. Linda went above and beyond, and is worth every penny. It was a truly a pleasure working with her. Do not wait to hire Uncluttered, you will be glad you did!

~ Wil and Vera W. - Renton, WA

Hiring Uncluttered for estate clearing can offer numerous benefits and streamline the process of managing a deceased loved one's belongings and estate.

Here are seven compelling reasons to consider hiring Uncluttered.

- SPECIALIZED EXPERTISE: Uncluttered provides specialized knowledge and skills for efficiently managing and organizing belongings, especially during challenging estate clearing situations.
- STRATEGIC SORTING AND CATEGORIZATION: Uncluttered professionals strategically sort and categorize items based on value, sentiment, or disposal, simplifying decision-making for the family.
- CUSTOMIZED SOLUTIONS: Uncluttered approaches are tailored to the unique needs and circumstances of each estate, offering personalized solutions for efficient organization and clearance.
- OPTIMAL RESOURCE UTILIZATION: Uncluttered services optimize resources like time, space, and effort, ensuring efficient and effective estate clearing.
- SENSITIVITY AND COMPASSION: Uncluttered professionals approach estate clearing with empathy and compassion, understanding the emotional challenges involved, and providing support to the family.
- MAXIMIZED VALUE RECOVERY: The experienced Uncluttered team can identify valuable items and recommend appropriate channels for selling, donating, or disposing of possessions, potentially maximizing the financial return for the estate.
- SMOOTH TRANSITION AND CLOSURE: Uncluttered services efficiently manage the estate clearing process, facilitating a smoother transition for the family, helping to achieve closure during a difficult period.

By enlisting the help of a professional organizer for estate clearing, you can ensure a smoother, more organized, and less stressful transition during a challenging time.

call for your free phone consultation

what we do best...

